A truly timeless establishment for all who embrace the simple pleasures of eating good food with warm hospitality, the cozily intimate Cedar Crossing Tavern is a charming little eatery is reminiscent of the exquisitely dark and tiny restaurants you might find nestling in the Montmartre district of Paris. The cuisine is of a consistently high standard, the menu changing with the seasons, although the dishes are for the most part typically European and American. Ample portions and only the freshest, quality local produce ensure good value for your money. Stay for dinner after the reception event.
