

R.E. Celebrates “Kuumba & Kreativity” at 2nd Annual Holiday Celebration 2007

December 20, 2007 – Held at the MLK, Jr. Memorial Library, Raising Expectations Inc. celebrated the 2007 year with its 2nd Annual Holiday Party, “Kuumba and Kreativity.” The program began with a drumming presentation by In Memory of African Culture, Inc., and a candle-lighting educational lesson by African dancer and instructor, Binahkaye Joy. The audience also enjoyed poetry on Kwanzaa by Janis Evans, a local community leader, and a video presentation of Raising Expectations’ past 2007 activities. R.E.’s Founder also presented awards to 2007 instructors, and Summer 2007 Arts Apprenticeship Mentors and Apprentices.
