

'LEARNING TO SCULPT' STUDIO VISIT AT HOWARD UNIVERSITY WITH AKILI RON ANDERSON

Thursday, November 9 – Raising Expectations Inc. welcomed a group of 10 young people to participate in the “Learning to Sculpt” workshop with Afro-centric artist and native Washingtonian, Akili Ron Anderson. As the students entered the studio, they were amazed by the various artwork of other artists also occupying the large studio space of Howard University’s School of Sculpture building on Sherman Avenue.
