

Raising Expectations Inc. Visits Home Art Studio

January 20, 2007 – Hyattsville MD, Raising Expectations Inc (R.E.) organized a visit to the home art studio of Wesley Clark. As soon as the group of participants entered his studio, art pieces used in previous and upcoming gallery shows and tours are organized along the walls. Before beginning his presentation, Clark allowed participants to ask general questions about his artwork and engage in free-style drawing exercises.
